Crimes, Spirits & Scottish Secrets

A Weekend To Die For!

Dare to spend three chilling nights wrapped in mystery, history, and the supernatural with our Spooky Weekend Escape. Check into our historic hotel—where whispers echo through the halls—and prepare for a thrilling itinerary that includes a spine-tingling murder mystery evening, a ghost tour and an unforgettable visit to the town's eerie old jail. From creaking floorboards to flickering candlelight, every moment is designed to send shivers down your spine. Are you brave enough to uncover the secrets that linger after dark?

Murder Mystery

Uncover secrets, solve clues, and catch the killer in a thrilling comedy night of murder, mystery, and suspense

Stirling Ghost Walk & Old Town Tour

Step into Stirling's shadowy past with the Stirling GhostWalk and Old Town Tour — a spine-tingling journey through centuries of history, mystery, and hauntings. Led by costumed guides, this theatrical walking tour weaves together chilling ghost stories, local legends, and true tales from Stirling's darker days. Wander the cobbled streets of the Old Town, pass historic landmarks, and visit eerie locations where restless spirits are said to linger. Equal parts entertaining and eerie, it's the perfect way to explore Stirling's haunted heritage after dark.

Old Town Jail

Opening in 1847, Stirling's New County Jail – known today as the Old Town Jail – was the last Reformed Prison built in Victorian Scotland. It was a last attempt to put education, training and rehabilitation at the heart of Scotland's penal system. This process worked remarkably well, for a while at least...

Scottish History

DAY
1

New Lanark

New Lanark is a small 18th-century village set in a sublime Scottish landscape where the philanthropist and Utopian idealist Robert Owen moulded a model industrial community in the early 19th century. The imposing cotton mill buildings, the spacious and well-designed workers' housing, and the dignified educational institute and school still testify to Owen's humanism.

2

Old Town Jail

Opening in 1847, Stirling's New County Jail – known today as the Old Town Jail – was the last Reformed Prison built in Victorian Scotland.
